

Anti-doping rules applicable to the Olympic qualifying events for boxing

Following the decision taken on 16 March 2020 to suspend the Boxing qualification events for the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 (the "Qualifying Events") and their resumption in 2021, the International Olympic Committee (the "IOC") has issued this document regarding the anti-doping rules applicable to all participants of the Qualifying Events (the "Participant(s)").

As a condition of being entered as Participant and to participate (and/or being accredited) to such Qualifying Events, participation (and/or accreditation) to these Qualifying Events make Participants subject to the authority of the IOC in connection with the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020. Participants agree to be bound by the Anti-Doping Rules applicable to the Games of the XXXII Olympiad Tokyo 2020 (the "Anti-Doping Rules") as adapted and interpreted for the purposes of the Qualifying Events.

In the context of the Qualifying Events, the Anti-Doping Rules shall be interpreted and implemented mutatis mutandis in order to allow the effective conduct of Doping Control in respect to the Qualifying Events' Participants and notably In-Competition Testing on the occasion of each Qualifying Events' Competition and Out-of-Competition Testing. In particular and without limitation:

- (1) the "Period of the Qualifying Events" shall cover the whole period extending from signature of the entry form by the Participants and/or other Persons who are being accredited to such Qualifying Events, and until full completion of the qualification process for the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020;
- (2) where appropriate depending on context, references in the Anti-Doping Rules to the Olympic Games, and/or Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 and/or Competitions and Events in the context of the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 shall notably be deemed to constitute also references to or including Qualifying Events, and/or Qualifying Events' Competitions or Events;
- (3) any anti-doping rule violation established in application of the Anti-Doping Rules, irrespective of whether such an anti-doping rule violation is established on the occasion of or in connection with Qualifying Events' Competitions or Events or on the occasion of or in connection with the actual Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 or Competitions thereof, may lead to Consequences specified in the Anti-Doping Rules, including Provisional Suspension pursuant to Article 7.6 of the Anti-Doping Rules, Disqualifications pursuant to Articles 9 and 10.1 of the Anti-Doping Rules of any and all results achieved in any and all Qualifying Events' Competitions or Events and/or in any and all Competitions of the actual Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 and/or to Ineligibility for Qualifying Events' Competitions or Events and/or for the actual Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 or Competitions thereof and other Consequences pursuant to Article 10.2 of the Anti-Doping Rules, the forfeiture of any medals, diplomas, points and prizes from the Qualifying Events' Competitions or Events and/or Olympic Games Tokyo 2020, and any recovery of costs (if applicable) related to the anti-doping rule violation;
- (4) given the present situation of the International Boxing Association (AIBA), references in the Anti-Doping Rules to the International Federation shall be understood, in the context of the Qualifying Events and also of the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020, as references to AIBA or any Anti-Doping Organization acting as AIBA's successor in respect to the Doping Control or designated for this purpose, in particular regarding the provisions in the Anti-Doping Rules related to Results Management (Article 7.1.2, 7.9 of the Anti-Doping Rules), Sanctions on Individuals (Article 10.2.2 of the Anti-Doping Rules);
- (5) from signature of the entry form, Qualifying Events' Participants shall be eligible for TUEs issued in accordance with the procedure provided for in Article 4.4 of the Anti-Doping Rules. In the event of qualification to Olympic Games Tokyo 2020, TUEs issued in application of the Anti-Doping Rules in the context of the Qualifying Events shall remain valid (subject to review pursuant to Articles 4.4.5-4.4.7 of the Anti-Doping Rules) for the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020.

Italicised terms in this document shall have the meaning attributed to such in the Anti-Doping Rules.
