- g. insurance providers, which may provide services to Accredited Persons;
- h. healthcare and medical service providers, which may provide treatment to Accredited Persons during their stay at the Events;
- i. Rights-Holding Broadcasters and other media, which report on the Events and inform the general public;
- j. sponsors and other commercial partners, which provide services in connection with the Games and promote their partnerships with the Olympic Movement;
- k. travel and accommodation service providers, which provide services to Accredited Persons.

Where the above-mentioned recipients consider such measure necessary for the Authorised Purposes, they may combine or supplement any Personal Data of Accredited Persons received from Local Organising Committees and the IOC with any other information in their possession. Accredited Persons are invited to consult the websites or other official information sources made available by the above-mentioned recipients for additional information regarding their respective operations and activities and related Processing of Personal Data. Personal Data will normally be Processed in a confidential manner. Some Personal Data, such as some biographical information and information related to the participation of Participants in the Events' competitions or related to breaches of rules applicable to Accredited Persons, may be publicly disclosed.

7. Grounds for Processing Personal Data

Processing of Personal Data of Accredited Persons is based on the following grounds:

- a. the necessity in view of allowing and facilitating Participants' participation in the Events and, more generally, the performance by Accredited Persons of their respective operations and responsibilities in connection with the Events (c.f. Section 4, paragraphs a, b, f and i);
- b. the substantial public interest to guarantee security at the Events, carry out anti-doping activities, protect clean athletes, prevent the manipulation of competitions, inform the general public and promote the Events and the Games (c.f. Section 4, paragraphs c, d, e, f and g);
- c. the legitimate interests of the Local Organising Committees and the IOC to ensure that Accredited Persons respect their covenant to comply with the provisions applicable to Accredited Persons (including the Olympic Charter and the IOC Code of Ethics, as well as for Participants the Anti-Doping Rules applicable at the occasion of the Events, the World Anti-Doping Code and the rules referred to in section 1 of the Conditions of

- Participation), as well as to promote the Events, the Games and their legacy (c.f. Section 4, paragraphs e and g);
- d. applicable legal provisions authorising the Processing of Personal Data for the Authorised Purposes, as well as compliance with the legal obligations of the Local Organising Committees, the IOC or other recipients listed under Section 6 (c.f. Section 4, in particular, without limitation, its paragraphs e and h);
 - e. protection of the vital interests of Participants or of other natural persons when providing healthcare services (c.f. Section 4, paragraph d);
 - f. Accredited Persons' consent, where expressly granted (c.f. Section 4, paragraph i) where recipient's consent is required by law).

8. Retention period of Personal Data

As a general rule, the Processing of Personal Data of Accredited Persons described in this Information Notice will cease after a period of four years following the end of the Events. Personal Data of Accredited Persons may be kept for a longer period of time where necessary to fulfil the Authorised Purposes including, without limitation, information deemed of historical interest (such as sports results, key biographical information), which may be kept as long as necessary for the purposes listed in Section 4, paragraphs f and g; and information related to the compliance of activities occurring at the Events with the Olympic Charter and other rules applicable to Accredited Persons Processed for the purposes listed in Section 4, paragraphs e and h. Retention periods applicable to anti-doping activities are specified in Annex A of the International Standard on Protection of Privacy and Personal Information, forming part of the World Anti-Doping Code, which provides that Personal Data of Participants may be retained over time by WADA, the IOC and the ITA for a period up to 10 years or indefinitely.

9. Security of Personal Data

Local Organising Committees and the IOC will use technical and organisational measures to protect Personal Data against the risks of damage, destruction, loss or unauthorised access, in accordance with applicable laws.

10. International Transfer

Local Organising Committees and the IOC will Process Accredited Persons' Personal Data mainly in the host countries where the Events take place (i.e. People's Republic of China, Senegal, Great Britain, Argentina and France) and in Switzerland where the IOC headquarters are located. However, they shall be entitled to make Accredited Persons' Personal Data available to entities listed in Section 6 located in other countries, including outside the European Union (EU)/European Economic Area (EEA). In such case, Local Organising Committees and the IOC shall take measures required by applicable data protection laws to ensure that Personal Data of Accredited Persons continue to benefit from an adequate level of protection, such as Standard Contractual Clauses established in the Decision of the EU commission.

11. Rights of Accredited Persons

The IOC has designated a person in charge of receiving complaints or questions in relation to the Processing of Accredited Persons' Personal Data who can be contacted at the following address in order for Accredited Persons to exercise their right to request access, rectification, erasure, restriction of Processing, objection to Processing or to the adoption of automated decisions and, be it the case, data portability, as well as the remaining privacy rights and digital rights:
